

Certificate of Timber Legality Origin

The authorized officer will certify the timber and the legal origin of the timber as follows:

1. Trees on Land with Ownership or Possession Rights

The land documents include: Land Title Deed, Map Title Deed , Sealed Title Deed
Tra Chong Stamped "Utilized",
Land Possession Notification Form (Sor.Kor. 1),
Certificate of Utilization (Nor.Sor.3, Nor.Sor.3 Gor, Nor.Sor.3 Khor),
Reservation License (Nor.Sor.2, Nor.Sor.2 Gor) ,
Form No. 3 (Issued after the Land Code took effect)

2.Trees Planted on Permitted Agricultural Land

These trees grow on land approved for utilization under land-use documents announced by the Minister with Cabinet approval. These documents include:
Sor.Por.Kor. 4-01, Sor.Por.Kor. 4-01 Gor, Sor.Por.Kor. 4-01 Khor, Sor.Por.Kor. 4-01 Khong, Sor.Por.Kor. 4-01 Chor.

"The timber must either be in a standing tree condition or in the form of a cut log that has not yet been moved out of the stump area."

Contract/For Further Information

Phone 02-561-4292 ต่อ 5679

Website www.forest.go.th/checkpoint/

Email rfd.checkpoint5679@gmail.com

Address

Forest Certification Division, Forest Economics Office, Royal Pairoj Suvannakorn Building, 1st Floor No. 61 Phahon Yothin Road, Chatuchak District, Bangkok 10900, Thailand

Royal Forest Department

The Royal Forest Department Regulations on the Issuance of Timber Certificates B.E. 2563 (2020)

Certification of Timber Legality Origin

Forest Certification Division, Forest Economics Office

The steps for applying timber certificate (Form Ror.Mor. 5) under Section 18/1 of the Forest Act B.E. 2484 (1941)

01 Application Submission (Ror.Mor. 1) Regional Applicants

Visit the local office at:

- Forest Protection & Development Unit
- Provincial Forestry Center
- Forest Resources Management Office

02 Documment verification

The officer verifies the accuracy of the documentary evidence

03 Timber Inspection

The officer conducts a Field Inspection & Reporting

04 Approval Review

The Director-General of the RFD (or an authorized officer) issues the Timber Certificate (Ror.Mor. 5)

01 Application Submission (Ror.Mor. 1) Bangkok Applicants

Submit at the Royal Forest Department

02 Documment verification

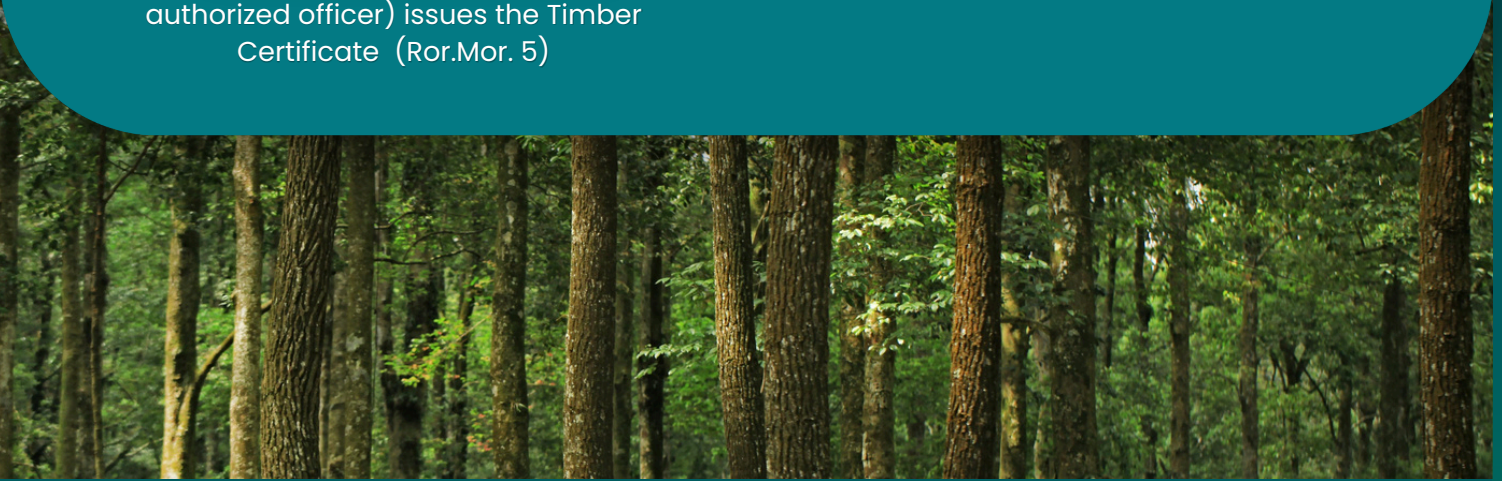

The officer verifies the accuracy of the documentary evidence

03 Timber Inspection

The officer conducts a Field Inspection & Reporting

04 Approval Review

The Director-General of the RFD (or an authorized officer) issues the Timber Certificate (Ror.Mor. 5)

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

1. Timber Certificate Application Form (Form Ror.Mor. 1)
2. Personal / Entity Identification Evidence
   - 2.1 Natural Person (Individual)
     - Identification Card / Government Official Identification Card
     - Authorization letter (in case of authorization)
   - 2.2 Juristic person or legal entity
     - Proof of Juristic Person Registration or Certificate of Juristic Person Registration
     - Memorandum of Association (MOA) and Articles of Association (AOA) of the registered limited company
     - Authorization letter (in case of authorization)
3. Land Rights Documents (Select one of the following)
   - Copy of the document proving ownership or possessory rights to the land under the Land Code
   - Copy of the land-use permit document announced by the Minister with Cabinet approval (applicable strictly to planted trees)

*Note : If the land lacks clear boundaries or plot layouts, the applicant must have the relevant authority draft and certify the plot boundaries and layout, complete with perimeter coordinate values in the UTM coordinate system.

4. Sketch Map Showing Land Location
5. Photographs of the Trees

Law and related regurgitation

Application Form (Ror.Mor. 1)