1. The purpose of this report is to provide a summary of the results of the audit of the Department of Health and Human Services' (HHS) financial management system. The audit was conducted from August 1979 to February 1980. The results of the audit are presented in the following sections:

Area	Findings	Recommendations	Comments
Financial Management System	The financial management system is complex and difficult to understand. It is not clear how the system is supposed to work. The system is not well documented and the documentation is outdated. The system is not well maintained and the data is not accurate. The system is not well controlled and there is a high risk of fraud and error.	1. The Department should conduct a comprehensive review of the financial management system to determine the best way to organize and manage the system. 2. The Department should improve the documentation of the system and ensure that the documentation is up-to-date. 3. The Department should improve the maintenance of the system and ensure that the data is accurate. 4. The Department should improve the control of the system and implement measures to reduce the risk of fraud and error.	The Department has agreed to implement the recommendations and has provided a plan of action to the Office of Inspector General. The Department is expected to complete the plan of action by the end of the fiscal year.
Personnel Management	The personnel management system is not well organized and the personnel are not well trained. The personnel are not well supervised and there is a high risk of inefficiency and error. The personnel are not well motivated and there is a high risk of turnover.	1. The Department should reorganize the personnel management system to improve efficiency and effectiveness. 2. The Department should improve the training of personnel and ensure that personnel are well trained for their jobs. 3. The Department should improve the supervision of personnel and ensure that personnel are well supervised. 4. The Department should improve the motivation of personnel and implement measures to reduce the risk of turnover.	The Department has agreed to implement the recommendations and has provided a plan of action to the Office of Inspector General. The Department is expected to complete the plan of action by the end of the fiscal year.
Information Management	The information management system is not well organized and the information is not well managed. The information is not well stored and there is a high risk of loss and error. The information is not well processed and there is a high risk of inefficiency and error.	1. The Department should reorganize the information management system to improve efficiency and effectiveness. 2. The Department should improve the storage of information and ensure that information is well stored. 3. The Department should improve the processing of information and ensure that information is well processed.	The Department has agreed to implement the recommendations and has provided a plan of action to the Office of Inspector General.
